and yellow*   They opened him and found two conies in his belly,   ,

From thence we sailed to Cartagena, where we went in, moored our ships, and would have traded with them; but they durst not for fear of the King, We brought up the Minion against the Castle, and shot at the Castle and town.
Then we landed in an island, where they have many gardens ; where, in a cave, we found certain bot^Jos of wine* which we brought away with us. In recompense whereof, our General commanded to be set on shore woollen and linen cloth, to the value thereof.

From hence, by foul weather, we were forced to seek the port of San Juan de Ulua.
In our way, thwart of [off] Campeche, we met with a Spaniard, a small ship, which was bound for Santo Domingo. It had in it a Spaniard called AUGUSTINE DE^ VILLA NEUVA; who was the man that betrayed all the noblemen in the Indies, and caused them to be beheaded ; wherefore he, with two Friars, fled to Santo Domingo. We took and brought them with us into the port of San Juan de Ulua. Our General made great account of him, and used him like a Nobleman; howbeit, in the end, he was one of them that betrayed us.

When we had moored our ships, and landed [at San J-itan de Ulua]; we mounted the ordnance that we found there in the Island; and for our safety, kept watch and ward.
The next day after, we discovered the Spanish Fleet; whereof LUQON, a Spaniard, was General. With him came a Spaniard called Don MARTIN DE HENRIQUE^, whom the King of Spain sent to be his Viceroy of the Indies.
He sent a pinnace with a flag of truce unto our General, to know, " Of what country those ships were, that rode there in the King of Spain's port ? " Who said, "They were the Queen of England's ships, which came in there for victuals for their money : wherefore if your General will come in here! he shall give me victuals and other necessaries, and I will go out on the one side of the port, and he shall come in on the other side."
